Davidson	Community Resource Center	615-291-6688	gracen@crcmidtn.org	Gracen Ntazi	The Community Resource Center provides basic essentials and small luxuries that improve the lives of Nashville's most vulnerable neighbors. Our organization works with 100 nonprofits in the Middle Tennessee area and provides them with brand new personal hygiene items, cleaning supplies, clothes and much more. We are in need of students who would like to volunteer to sort our brand new donations and help us get them put out on shelves for our nonprofits to take. We will be sorting new donations from companies like Cracker Barrel and Dollar Tree. No skill needed just a willingness to get involved and be proactive to help us get through as many boxes as possible during your time here. If you are interested in this opportunity, please contact Gracen by emailing gracen@crcmidtn.org for more information on how to sign up!
Davidson	Nashville VA Medical Center	615-873-6978 ext. 66978	gladys.rudd@va.gov	Gladys Rudd	For those volunteering short term, they will be assisting in the Voluntary Service Office helping to sort and organize donations, folding letters for mail outs, etc. For students interested in longer term assignments, we have a variety of positions available including serving as a friendly visitor, volunteer Ambassadors (pushing patients in wheel chairs throughout the medical center and providing directional assistance), providing clerical assistance, etc. College students may also have an opportunity to volunteer in their area of career interest. Examples include, pharmacy, physical therapy, occupational therapy and medicine. Address: Nashville VA Medical Center, 1310 24th Avenue South, Nashville, TN 37212 Contact: Nashville VA Center for Development and Engagement at 615-873-6978 for more information or to sign up if you're interested.
Davidson	Strings for Hope		info@stringsforhope.com		Strings for Hope proudly introduces great pieces of wearable art composed from recycled strings from musical instruments donated by some of the country's most talented musicians. In order for our makers to create their final pieces, our donated musical string must first be pulled, straightened, sorted, and cleaned. We are overflowing with string, (which is a great thing!) so we could use some extra help with this part of the process. This is where you come in! Davidson	Salvation Army	615-416-3175	Sarah.Martino@uss.salvationarmy.org	Sarah Martino	Any volunteer opportunities will be listed on our website- https://www.salvationarmynashville.org/volunteer
Davidson	Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle TN	615-627-1581	volunteer@secondharvestmidtn.org	Xavie Rolon	Volunteers are needed to assist Second Harvest Food Bank of Middle TN with sorting and packing donated food in our warehouse which helps to provide millions of meals each month to our hungry neighbors in middle and west Tennessee. Volunteers must create an account HERE to sign up for shifts: https://secondharvestmidtn.volunteerhub.com/vv2/ Unless you are volunteering at our Nashville location, do NOT click "I am a Tennessee Promise student" when creating your account. Students volunteering at the Nacarato Family Distribution Center in Smyrna are welcome to sign up for any available Food Sorting shifts at this location to receive credit for service hours. Due to safety concerns, all volunteers must wear closed-toed shoes (no sandals or flip flops) and clothes appropriate to work in a warehouse environment. It is also recommended to bring a sweatshirt and long pants in case you are needed to work in the 40-degree cooler. When submitting your TN Promise community service hours, please list Xavie Rolon as your supervisor.

Davidson	UT/TSU Extension	931-967-2741	hisbell@utk.edu	Hunter Isbell	4-H encourages diverse groups of youth to develop their unique skills and talents to the fullest potential. Young people participate in 4-H through clubs, special interest groups, after-school programs, camps and many other activities. "Learning by doing" through hands on activities and community involvement empowers 4-H'ers to develop and strengthen life skills. 4-H is a family affair. This includes the parent-child relationship and the extended family of community and state. It is a unique blend of government, private business and volunteers working together to broaden the horizons of Davidson County's young people. Contact: Hunter Isbell hisbell@utk.edu
Davidson	Hands On Nashville	615-298-1108	hon@hon.org		Hands On Nashville connects volunteers of all ages to more than 300 service projects each month. Davidson	Open Table Nashville		volunteer@opentablenashville.org	Liz Shadbolt	A non-profit, interfaith organization that disrupts cycles of poverty, journeys with the marginalized, and provides education about issues of homelessness. In addition to being committed to relational outreach work, we host Resource Shelters (bi-weekly shelters to work on starting the housing process with our friends) and education sessions about breaking cycles of poverty. We have chances to volunteer all year long. Most volunteers serve at our Resource Shelters held at 3 different sites on the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month. Here is a list of volunteer opportunities with rough time estimates for those evenings: - Set Up Team (help set up beds, tables, etc.; 5:15pm-6:30pm) - Welcome Table Host (greet and sign in our shelter guests; 5:30pm-7pm) - Haircuts and Foot Clinics (6pm-8:30pm) - Floater Volunteers/Active Listeners (serve as a listening/conversation partner for some of our friends at the shelter, help with last minute volunteer needs; anytime between 5:30pm and 8:30pm) - Dinner/Breakfast (provide meal for about 20 people; Dinner 5pm-8pm; Breakfast drop off anytime after 5pm) - Innkeepers (stay the night at the shelter with another volunteer; 8pm-8am) - Laundry (do laundry after the shelter before the next shelter; pickup after 8am next morning) Additionally, we host volunteer projects on weekends and evenings throughout the year. Many local colleges have groups who work with us and I'd be glad to connect you with them and/or students who have served recently.
